

Worksheet 1 - Three Wishes Effective Adverbs

An adverb is a word that adds information about a verb, adjective or another adverb. Most adverbs end in 'ly' and when used effectively can greatly enhance descriptions and actions in all kinds of texts.

Task 1: Select adverbs from the boxes below to insert into the sentences from the story Three Wishes.

curiously	silently	dubiously	sharply	nervously
scarcely	eagerly	amiably	off-handedly	carelessly
placidly	loudly	furtively	brightly	contentedly

- Outside, the night was cold and wet, but inside the small parlour the blinds were drawn and the fire burned _____.
- Mother was knitting _____ by the fire.
- Mr White looked up _____, just in time to intercept a knowing glance between mother and son.
- "There he is," said Herbert White, as the gate banged _____ and heavy footsteps came towards the door.
- The old man rose, and opening the door, was heard talking _____ with their visitor.
- The sergeant-major shook hands, and taking the seat by the fire, watched _____ while his host got out drinks.
- "Well, it's just a bit of what you might call magic," said the sergeant-major _____.
- His three listeners leaned forward _____.
- Mrs. White drew back with a grimace, but her son, taking it, examined it _____.
- Mr. White took the paw from his pocket and eyed it _____.
- The dirty, shrivelled little paw was lying _____ on the sideboard.
- He gazed at her _____, and listened in a preoccupied fashion as the old lady apologised for the appearance of the room.
- The man coughed _____, and rising, walked slowly to the window.
- Neither spoke, but both lay _____ listening to the tick of the clock.
- At that moment a knock, so quiet and stealthy as to be _____ audible, sounded at the front door.

Task 2: Locate the meanings of each adverb in the boxes above using a dictionary.

Extension Activity:

- Scan Three Wishes and make a list of all the adverbs used to describe how the characters are speaking e.g. "Never mind, dear," said his wife soothingly. Keep this list handy when you are using direct speech in the texts you write.