

Worksheet 2 - The Missing Angel Profile of an Artist

"Fancy a masterpiece?" said Arthur's dad. "I have a special invitation to something unbelievably exciting. Donatello's coming to town."

Donatello was a world famous artist whose masterpieces are displayed and revered to this very day. He is even thought by some to be responsible for bridging the gap between the classical and renaissance artistic periods.

Task 1: Use relevant, appropriate research materials to complete the following profile about Donatello.

Full name
Date of birth
Place of birth
Education
Early work history
Description of his style and technique
Most famous works of art
Where his artworks can be found today
Date of death
Place of burial

Task 2: Present the information from the table above to an audience using an appropriate format e.g. slide show presentation, information booklet etc.

Extension Activity:

- What form of artistic expression do you enjoy the most: music, dance, visual arts or dramatic arts? Write a personal text explaining why you chose your selected art form and include a variety of specific examples of this form of artistic expression