

Worksheet 1

Live Dinosaur Tour

Have You Heard of Homographs?

There are plenty of homographs in the story 'The Live Dinosaur Tour'. A homograph is a word that is spelt the same and sounds the same as another word but has a different meaning. Here is an example of a homograph: The word 'cool' can mean two things:

- The wind is a bit cool – means the wind is a bit cold.
- Those shoes are cool – means the shoes are very nice.

1. Use a dictionary to find two meanings of these homographs taken from the story:

a. drone _____

b. lift _____

c. safe _____

d. flat _____

e. watch _____

f. kind _____

2. Can you think of any other homographs?

