The Caped Crusader

Invent Your Own Superhero!

'Caped crusaders spent their time fighting evil, saving people and protecting them from robbers...They protected magpies with broken wings, saved stray rabbits, lost dogs and kittens and homeless baby possums. They were very brave all the time and were never scared. They didn't expect to be praised or thanked but they were always on telly so everyone knew how brave and clever they were anyway.'

In the story 'The Caped Crusader', Billy had a very clear idea of the kind of superhero he wanted to be. Imagine you have been given the chance to become a superhero.
