

Learning Support

Loos Blues

1. What was the story “Loo Blues” about? Retell it in your own words.

2. Number these sentences in the correct order.

- ___ He could not open the door.
- ___ No one came when Anna yelled for help.
- ___ The door was stuck and she could not get out.
- ___ Anna went to the toilet when an ad came on.
- ___ Anna had to get out through the window.
- ___ After a long time, Dad came to use the toilet.

3. Poor Dad! He still needs to go to the toilet! What should do? Read the suggestions and answer Yes or No. Can you think of another solution to his problem?

- He should chop down the door with an axe. _____
- He should ask to use the toilet next door. _____
- He should water the roses outside. _____
- He should ring up a handyman to fix the door. _____
- He should try to squeeze through the window. _____

4. Sometimes two words are joined together with an apostrophe. This is called a contraction. There are several examples in the story. Change these contractions back to two words. The first one is done for you.

didn't did not

it's _____ shouldn't _____

I'm _____

wouldn't _____ he's _____ couldn't _____

5. Can you make your own contractions? The first one is done for you.

I will	I'll	is not	_____
we will	_____	are not	_____
she will	_____	was not	_____
they will	_____	were not	_____

6. Join the words from the story with words that rhyme. The first one is done for you. Say all the words as you find the pairs.

squeeze	candle	cried	licking
wiggled	lace	joking	jiggled
kicking	scared	floor	freeze
face	door	stared
handle	poking	tried

