The Frog Prince

Design a Comic Strip

Use the grid below to draw the events from the fairy tale 'The Frog Prince'.
Use speech bubbles to show what each character is saying.

The princess accidentally threw her golden ball down the well.	The frog offered to get it for her if she promised to love him in return.	The princess agreed but then ran away laughing once the frog gave her ball back.
The frog arrived at the palace but the princess did not want to let him in.	The king demanded that the princess let the frog in and allow him to eat with her.	The frog slept on the princess' pillow.
The next morning the frog disappeared and the princess was happy to see him gone.	On the third morning the princess was sad but turned around to see a handsome prince instead.	The prince told her that a wicked witch had turned him into a frog but the spell was now broken. They got married.
