

Worksheet 1

The Pied Piper

Astounding Anagrams

An anagram is a special kind of word. When you rearrange its letters, you can create a completely different word!

For example: you can rearrange 'dear' to make the word 'read'.

Rewrite the sentences below by rearranging the letters of the underlined words to find the correct missing word.

1. In the town of Hamelin, there was a tar plague.

---

2. The rats popped out of clothing and hoses.

---

3. The mayor's miles went off his face when he heard the price.

---

4. You can have your money if you remove every salt rat!

---

5. He put the pipe to his slip and started to play.

---

6. A stream of star poured out of Hamelin.

---

7. It was mite for the Pied Piper to collect his money.

---

8. A master of children poured out of Hamelin.

---