

Worksheet 2

The Pied Piper

Design a Cartoon Strip

Use these conversations in the table below to design a cartoon strip of the story. Use speech bubbles in your comic strip to show what each character is saying. A speech bubble is when you draw a large circle coming out of the character's mouth and the words they speak are inside it.

1. Mayor's Wife: You must do something about the rats!

Mayor: And so I shall, my dear.

2. Town Elders: Our beautiful town is too good for you.

Pied Piper: Perhaps I can be of service.

3. Mayor: You shall have your money.

Pied Piper: Just remember what you have promised.

4. The Pied Piper starts to play his pipe and the rats follow him out of town.

5. Pied Piper: The rats have gone.

Townspeople: Three cheers for our mayor!

6. Pied Piper: It's time to honour our agreement.

Mayor: Agreement? What agreement?

7. The Pied Piper starts to play his pipe and the children follow him out of town.

8. Townspeople: Please give us back our children!

Pied Piper: It is too late, you should have paid the piper!
