

Worksheet 3

A Ghost Story

Become a Ghost Hunter!

'In those days, $50 was a lot of money and Dolph was poor. So he agreed to be a ghost hunter.'

Imagine you are being paid $10,000 to become a ghost hunter like Dolph, (although your reward is a lot more than $50!) Write an imaginary story about your adventures.

Complete this ideas plan to help you get started:

1. What is your ghost hunting name?
2. Who is offering you the money?
3. Why do they want you to hunt the ghost?
4. Describe the ghost you have been asked to hunt.
5. Where do you find the ghost?
6. What happens when you find it?

Now that you have planned your work, begin to draft your story. Remember to re-read your story as you write it to check for meaning and punctuation.

Complete this checklist when you have finished:

- My story makes sense
- I have dated my work
- I have given my story an appropriate title
- Full stops are in the right places
- Capital letters have been used correctly
- Spelling has been checked
- My story has an interesting ending

