Snake!

1. What was the story about? Retell it in your own words.

2. Read these sentences and answer Yes or No.

A snake was coiled up on Alan's stomach. _____

It had been there for fifteen hours. _____

Alan couldn't move in case the snake bit him. _____

The men decided to cut the sleeping bag open. _____

They lit a fire to try and smoke the snake out. _____

It writhed and twisted, but settled down again. _____

They made the snake move by cooling it down. _____

It slid out of the bag and headed for shade. _____

Vargas cut off its head with his sharp knife. _____

3. Sometimes you can add "y" to a noun to make it into an adjective (describing word). Add "y" to these words from the story (there is a rule for most words ending in silent "e").
